KILLED BY THE WIRE.

Execution of Four Murderers at Sing Sing Prison.

SLOCUM, WOOD, SMILER AND JUGIRO.

The First Shock from the Dynamo Killed the Culprit Each Case—The Execution Pronounced a Complete Success by Those Who Witnessed It—History of the Crimes for Which the Four Men Paid the Death Penalty.

SING SING, N. Y., July 7.—The first of the four murderers to meet death by electrocution was Slocum, the base ball player. He was put to death at 4:42 o'clock Tuesday morning. The executions of Wood, Smiler and Jugiro followed in rapid order, in conformity with legal decree. Only the prison officials, scientific experts and witnesses especially summoned were present in the execution chamber at the taking off of the four murderers. Deputy Attorney General Hogan arrived Monday evening with the death warrants. The Rev. Father Creeden and his assistant, Father Hogan, clad in their priestly garb, arrived at the prison at about 9:40 p.m.

Prepared for Death.

Hartvits A. Smiler was at one time a carpenter by trade and at the time the crime was committed he was a sailor. Slocum, 41, Wood, 52, Jugiro, 50. The prisoners had received some intimation beforehand that the executions were to take place Tuesday morning and they were prepared for them. They went to the execution bravely and met their fate without a struggle. They offered no resistance, but rather assisted the keepers when they were bound down in the chair. The electrodes were not applied as in the Kemmler case to the top of the skull and the base of the spine, but were bound to the forehead of the condemned man and down to the top of the legs. The current was turned on in each case for twenty seconds. The voltage was about 1,500 and 1,600. In each case there were apparent evidences of revival as in the Kemmler case and in each of these four cases the current was turned on a second time.

Flesh on the Legs Burned.

In spite of the fact that the sponges were kept constantly wet, all of the executed men were burned by the current and especially about the calves of the legs. The medical men present agreed that death came on first contact and that the seeming revival was merely a reflex muscular action. None of the witnesses was convinced by a fight, and all of them who have spoken have made the statement that the electrodes were successful and death in all cases was instantaneous and painless. At 12 o'clock Dora, Southwick and Daniels and Deputy Attorney Hogan left for the west. None of them would talk. Dr. Barber, the physician of the prison, came out shortly after and said that the autopsy was completed and that no statement would be given out but for several hours. Dr. McLean conducted the autopsy.

Everything Worked Smoothly.

The executions went off quietly. All of the men were killed on the first contact. There was no struggle when they were stripped down or resistance of any kind. The Rev. Mr. Lowe of New York, who assisted Chaplain Edgerton in his ministrations to Smiler, said shortly after leaving the prison that all four men died instantly and painlessly, and that the electrodes were in every way a success. No Struggle or Resistance.

Two of the witnesses to the execution who refused to give their names were interviewed and stated that they had been told before the autopsy that all the executions were completely successful and without pain. None of the men struggled or resisted when placed in the chair. Instead of doing so they assisted the deputy warden in arranging the straps as Kemmler did at Auburn. Jap Jugiro, who it was thought, would be hard to handle, was perfectly docile. All of the men were killed on the first contact. The positive electrode was applied as in the Kemmler case to the top of the head and the negative to the leg. It is supposed that suffering drew the man mad.

Collision Between Electric Cars.

PITTSBURGH, July 7.—At 7:40 o'clock this morning car No. 1 on the Atwood street electric road and car No. 6 on the Duquesne electric road collided at the intersection of the two streets. The car No. 6 of the men struggled or resisted when placed in the chair. Instead of doing so they assisted the deputy warden in arranging the straps as Kemmler did at Auburn. Jap Jugiro, who it was thought, would be hard to handle, was perfectly docile. All of the men were killed on the first contact. The positive electrode was applied as in the Kemmler case to the top of the head and the negative to the leg.

The SECOND ELECTROCUTION.

Every Precaution Taken to Prevent Any Accident.

WATERLOO, Ia., July 7.—Forty-nine cases of beer, five cases of whisky and eighty bottles of whisky, the property of Charles H. Young, of Waterloo, Ia., were destroyed here Tuesday by the sheriff. The brewing company operated an original package house in the city last summer, and the goods destroyed were seized last October under the provisions of the original package act. The company endeavored to compromise by paying the costs and shipping the intended beverages from the state, but no agreement could be made and the case has been hanging until the present time.

Collision of a Bridge.

ROUNDTOP, N. Y., July 7.—While a celebration was in progress at Margaretville in the Catskills near one hundred women and children were plunged into the Delaware river at that point by the breaking of a wooden bridge over which they were crossing to the park where the exercises were being held. They fell in a heap into the water below a distance of twelve feet. It was a miraculous escape for many. A 2-year-old child was killed. Thomas Mero was severely injured about the spine. A man named Harkins of New York had a wrist broken.

Arrested for Embrocement.

PITTSBURGH, July 7.—T. Douthett, secretary and treasurer of the Porter-Douthett Machine company, has been arrested charged with embezzeling $12,797. The charges were made by J. C. ENGLISH LUTHERAN DEDICATION.

The Services, in the New Church Sunday
Historical.

The services at the English Lutheran church on Sunday were of an interesting and attractive nature. The services in the morning were opened with the full "Morning Services" in the Church Book, conducted by Rev. Charles Koerner, of Chicago. After singing a hymn, Rev. S. Wagenhals, D.
D., of Ft. Wayne, preached a learned and practical and pointed sermon from the words, "A Glorious Church." The sermon was an able one, marked by force and power. Dr. Wagenhals, although suffering from sickness, nevertheless preached with earnestness.

The dedicatory services were held at 3 p.m.
The services were opened by the pastor. A few minutes were occupied by A.
H. Mills, Esq., in explaining the congregational title to the property. Assuring the public that the congregation is the sole owner of the property, and that it is unincumbered.

After this explanation Rev. W. A. Passavant, Jr., made a brief appeal to the audience to aid in raising the necessary funds to meet the expenses incurred in completing the building. The amount needed was $4,300. Cards were distributed and the friends of the church were asked to fill out the same in subscriptions. The cash receipts and subscriptions amounted to $1,820. In the evening $10 more were added. After this Rev. Koerner preached the dedicatory sermon. The theme was "True Worship." His address was a matchless one. It abounded in practical truths, and earnest appeals to the Christian to attend the services in the sanctuary with an ardent desire to worship God in spirit and in truth. True worship is a full, deep, earnest adoration of God for all his blessings and goodness to us. Eloquent sermons do not make it worship, but an acceptance of the truth, and a hearty belief of the same.

In the evening Rev. W. A. Passavant, of Pittsburg, preached an eloquent and practical sermon from the words, "I rejoice at thy word as one that findeth great spoil."

The attendance at each of these services was large. Rev. Wagner and his congregation have reason to rejoice because of the success of their work thus far.

The clergymen present during the dedicatory services were Revs. A. W. Walter, of Easton, Pa.; M. J. Stirwalt, D. C., of Mulberry; Dr. S. Wagenhals, of Ft. Wayne;
Rev. C. Koerner, Chicago, and W. H. Passavant, from Pittsburg.

HISTORICAL.

The English Lutheran church was organized nine years ago, with only five members. Now there are 77 members.
There has been an increase of 100 per cent in the last year. The original five members were Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Deck, A. G.
Webber, J. K. Harry, and Miss A. E.
Harry. All are now members except A.
G. Webber. The first pastor was Rev. A.
W. Walters. He was followed by Rev. J.
D. Roth, and by the present pastor, M.
L. Wagner. Mr. Wagner has the satisfaction of seeing the church prosperous, with a good building unencumbered, and a growing membership.

The church was organized at the residence of — Harpster. The first meetings were held in Bacon's hall. In 1886 the church building was put up and the meetings from then till now have been held in the basement of it.

The Sunday school was organized eight years ago, with 25 members. Now it has 155 members. Other societies in the church that have greatly helped it are the Willing Workers, Woman's Society and the Sewing society.

Brown's Another College.
Bloomington Pantograph.

The Board of Trade has consummated
arrangements whereby Prof. G. W. Brown will be the first teacher of high school mathematics in this city. The whole upstairs over Oberholser's wholesale grocery, on South Main street, has been leased by Prof.
Brown for five years, and the necessary alterations will at once be commenced. This will make the fifth college that is operated by Mr. Brown, the others being at Jacksonville, Galesburg, Decatur and Peoria. It is hoped that 300 new students may be attracted here by the location of this school.

Remembered the Boys.
Danville News.

M. Maxon, general manager of the Consolidated Tank Line company, located at Decatur, has written Chien Birmingham of the Danville fire department, asking him to put out the flames spreading to the Tenn Tank Line company's tanks, barrels, office,
etc. in this city the day the Snyder wagon works burned. In the letter was a check for $100, while Mr. Maxon requested Mr.
Brittingham to divide with the boys, which he has done.

Warrensburg.

Mrs. Hattie Childs, of Decatur, is the guest of Mrs. J. D. Childs.
James Hoover, of Norfolk, O., is visiting relatives here.

Mrs. Caroline Gordon, of near Marco, is visiting with the family of M. Albert.

Mrs. Ollie Fank, of near Forsyth, and Miss Hanchette, of Lincoln, are visiting relatives here.

Dr. and Mrs. Fisher who have been spending the summer in New York City returned home this morning.

Thomas Zimmerman, of Belle Center, O., spent last Saturday and Sunday in Westmoreland, with Mr. and Mrs. James McW-reath and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Beall and Mrs.
Frank Beall and son Frankie, of Decatur,
spent last Saturday and Sunday in War-rensburg, with Will Beall and family.

Mrs. N. S. Batchelder's house burned to the ground last Monday afternoon between the hours of 3 and 4, three miles east of Warrensburg. There had been no fire in the house for some time.

The fire was discovered about 3 o'clock. About $300 worth of household goods and clothing were destroyed. Loss was $300, partly insured.

July 6.

Yellow Fever in Georgia.

NEW YORK, July 7.—A special to The World from Brunswick, Ga., says: The discovery of yellow fever in this city has caused much alarm. Two unmistakable cases of the dread disease were reported on Friday last, but the authorities have made remarkable concessions to keep the matter quiet, even threatening
the correspondents with arrest in case they should communicate the fact to the outside world. People are leaving the town by the score. They fear a general outbreak and are moving their families and taking everything with them.

Another Scandalized Fines Array.

ALBANY, July 7.—C. H. Burton, secretary of the Burton & Clegg Cider and Vinegar Company, has fled a letter to him at Philadelphia has been received, stating that for years he has been borrowing small amounts, and now owes over $30,000. His largest victim is his father whom he wheedled out of $15,000. It is thought Burton's total liabilities may be $50,000.

THE FOURTH AT SALEM.

About 500 people enjoyed the Fourth on Mat Colony's farm at Salem, four miles southwest. One of the features of the day was a shooting match between the Salem club and Harristown club. Good shooting was done. Luther Miller of Harristown had individual shooting won a $10 bet, shooting 45 clay pigeons out of
50. Joe Nebo of Salem was second best, making 41. Nola Miller and F. C. Bradshaw tied on 38. The Salem club won with a score of 363 to Harristown's 341.
There was a very good display of fireworks
at night.

FILLING A PARTICULAR ORDER.

It was in the dog days, so, ordering dinner, he made it a special stipulation that one dish should be an ice pudding.

The waiter replied, "Yes, sir," and disappeared.

On the return of the waiter, the dinner was served, at least one of the courses
was concerned. "Now," said the dismayed master of the feast. "Do you want to burn us all up?" "Well, sir," was the grinned reply, "you asked for a nice pudding, and this is the nicest pudding we could make." London Truth.

The 91 cigar will stand every test for quality, and is fast gaining trade. Try the 91 and be convinced that you are getting a first-class smoke for 5 cents. Manufactured by A. D. Holland, 212 West Main street.

Delicious, cooling and refreshing summer drinks at Irwin's drug store.

A great reduction sale of trimmed millinery at cost this and next week at the new military store, in Casino block, opposite the postoffice.

Getting Bargains.

Many articles are selling surprisingly cheap at the Chicago Cheap Store bankrupt sale. There is a large amount of hardware, queensware, cutlery, clothing and other articles useful in the household. All go at prices way below the cost. Not much time can be put on each article, as the stock must all be sold out, and it is very large.

Always Awestruck.

You can buy ladies' dongs, Oxford's, patent tip, machine sewed, sole leather, counter dexter, inner sole, etc. A good one made for service and durability. The most popular Oxford for hard service as the great army of ladies who are wearing them will attest. All sizes, 8½ to 7. You can get them at $1 per pair at the Ferriss & Lapham Shoe store, 148 East Main street.

Buggies! Buggies! Buggies!

Do you want a buggy? Do you want a surrey? Do you want a stylish wagon? If you do we have a large stock of all kinds of vehicles and will sell you at bottom prices. Come in and see our display.

THE SPENCER & LEHMAN CO.

A Burnt Child.

Sher: "If I were to die would you marry again?" He—"Ne." A burnt child—that is—I mean, darling, of course I wouldn't marry again." But he turned out his own tea just the same. And he compromised with her by taking out a life insurance with Bob Parsons.

OFF THEY WENT.

AND THE WEATHER WASN'T WORTH A CENT.

A Fair Crowd at the Trotting Park Yesterday—Three Good Races Taken in Straight Heats—The Timerskeepers Get a Clerk—Yesterday's Races by Meate—Program.

If Jerry Rusk gives us any more weather like that of yesterday during this race meeting we will be very pleased to have him come to Decatur and run for office on the republican ticket.

The races at the trotting park yesterday were all right, but the weather was awful. We had wind and rain and hail; everything but a little sunshine. What kind of a thermometer must it be anyway that could stand the strain of yesterday's antics? Boys went swimming in the morning and looked up their skates in the evening. A man would need a baggage car to take along enough clothing to meet the various emergencies of the day.

And it might be a good idea to put steam heat in the car and a veranda on the roof.

But a good many of Decatur's people headed the weather's worst and went to the races. The cause was a good one, the way in which it was supported could make the knights of old tired of themselves.

There was a large turnout of the ladies yesterday. It was their day, at least that is what the program said. They took the program's printed word for it.

Some of them may have been sorry for it, but we hope they will all try again. They may not strike any worse luck; they may soften the heart of the weather king.

THE RUNNING GEARS.

There are some of the old faces among the people who are running the business. The judges yesterday were: G. W. Stover, J. M. Brownback and Dr. A. S. Waltz. The timers were: C. P. Housman, D. W. Bremerman and Dr. J. L. Connally.

These men acted as timers last year. They have been thinking over the matter and concluded that they had to work too hard at the former meetings. They struck the directory for a clerk, and they got what they wanted. It is the business of this clerk to make an instantaneous record of the time keepers' inspired announcements. C. P. Housman, Jr., is the clerk. He does the heavy work in the time keeper's stand. The three men who surround him boss the job. They are satisfied for the present.

Charles Housman puts in the few minutes spare time he has looking for bets on the time that will be made. There is no split or percentage in this game; it is all take-off.

James Culbertson, of Abilene, Kan., acts as starter. He has had about ten years experience at the work. When he is not starting race horses he practices law in his home town. He can do good work. He is especially good in making announcements to the grand stand.

THE RACES YESTERDAY.

They were good. They all won in one, two or three order, and that was what the crowd wanted. A broken heat in any race yesterday would have caused an insurrection. This was on account of the ragged-edged chunks of flying dirt that were called weather. Three heats in one would have pleased the crowd. It only wanted to see some horse get the money that was hung on. A horse that would have gone in and taken a strain heat would have been voted, voted, voted.

FEELING IN FAVOR OF RUSSELL

A Witness Who Was Lamp Strike Miller in the Chest.

Nothing new was developed yesterday in the Miller murder case, except that the other knife that was alleged to have been in the hands of States Attorney Jennings. The knife is of about the same size, shape and kind as the one taken from Earl, but does not show any signs of having been used for some time. The fact as to where Russell threw the knife, if he had used it, after the murder was committed, has not yet been fully investigated.

Russell's friends claim that the effort to fasten the knife to Russell is in vain to save Earl from being hung. They do not say, however, that Russell is not guilty, but go on the theory that he is, having been with Earl both before and after the murder. One thing that looks dark for Russell is that there seemed to be more blood on him than on Earl. At any rate the friends of Russell are exerting themselves to the utmost to stop the talk about Earl being the first to attack Miller. Two doctors interviewed said that the wounds appeared to have been cut with two knives.

Bob Drennan was released yesterday under a $500 bond, his brother, J. P. Drennan and Joe Treble, of Fuller's Point, going on his bond. A Review reporter approached Bob Drennan yesterday and asked him if he cared to talk about the matter. He said he did not, only that he would like to be reported correctly. He said to save John Earl plunge the knife into Miller, and the blood follow. When asked as to what position he was in when he struck, he said that he was in front and against Miller. He said over and over that he did not see but one blow struck. He is a farm hand and is working for J. Sampson near Arthur.

An interviewer who called on Earl and Russell yesterday afternoon found both playing cards. Earl declared that Russell had nothing to do with the murder, that he did it all. It is now pretty well known that Russell had no knife except a pocket knife and that he did not use that. The other knife that officers have they made by Earl. Earl denied it. He has no blood on him, neither Russell nor Earl claimed that the murder was committed by Earl in self defense. They say the railroaders had been asking possessory for her money, and that Russell had already given them 10 cents, but still they were quarreling.

The Same Old Fire

"Hay! there's a fire out here," shouted Leo J. Kadets last night as he kicked in the front door of the R. H. W. office. Some one went out and found that Brewster's bakery was on fire, as usual. That bakery gets on fire about six times a year. A big blaze was dancing cheerfully over the wooden ash barrel, and occasionally leaning over to scorch the starway and coal storage over to the stairs. The bakers were dumbfounded, apparently, to hear that there was a fire. Such a thing as a fire about the bakery was apparently impossible in their minds. In the mean time a few buckets of water from the fire department came and drowned it out. The wooden ash barrel was a total 1c.

The steamer was in front of the bakers, within three or four minutes after the alarm was turned on, and had a full head of steam up, too. It was not needed. The fire department had just got cleaned up and into bed again when there was an other alarm. This time it was a fire in the tailor shop of Watson & Moll, over the Style, on East Main street. About 12 o'clock Officers Lawrence and Bailey went out, and turned on the water. The fire department put it out after about 10 minutes' work. The steamer was on hand and was run about two minutes. The loss to the building and furniture in the shop cannot be ascertained.

Considerable interest is being taken in the case by neighbors and friends of Mrs. Moore, who make the most serious charges of brutality and cruelty against Moore. For the last few weeks Mrs. Moore has been in the Anna B. Millikin home, and persons who have seen her there say she is not insane.

A New Coal Company

Articles of incorporation have been issued to the Macon County Coal Company. Ed Martin, George Moeller and Laura Moeller are the incorporators. The capital stock is $2,000. Ed. L. Martin is president and George Moeller is secretary and treasurer. The new company will carry on a wholesale and retail coal business. At Mr. Martin's old stand, Mr. Moeller has resigned his position as traveling salesman for the Decatur Coal Company, and will devote his entire attention to the coal business. Mr. Martin will have his office in the same building and give most of his time to the artificial stone business, though interested in the coal business too. The new company begins operations Aug. 1.

Hands Burned by Electric

John Loyd a motorman of the Short Line, received a severe shock yesterday morning. A lineman of the Decatur Electric Light company was passing an insulated wire over the Short Line trolley wire when it fell in front of the car, which had just come up. John took hold of the wire with one hand, at the same time holding the controlling stand with the other. When he took hold of the wire it was un-insulated and he received a shock, which made him cry out with pain. His hands were severely burned.

Good Temples

Decatur Lodge of Good Templars had a lively meeting last night. Arrangements for a country picnic were discussed. Miss Emma Weigert gave a fine solo and Miss Kitty Sager gave a nice recitation. It was decided to go to each other's lodges and attend the coming camp meeting at Oakdale park in a body. The Decatur Lodge meeting visiting lodges at the depot on Good Templar day. It was voted to visit Long Creek tonight.

In the Right Place

O. W. Mitchem was arrested by Officer Leech yesterday for using profane and abusive language. Mitchem had been abusing his sister for not associating with two colored women of disreputable characters. She made complaint to Officer Leech and Mitchem found it out some way and approached Leech, asking him in a profane manner if he wanted him. Leech said he did and put Mitchem in the lockup.

Shave in Jail

Thomas Shaw, the man whom Mrs. Fannie Wallace accuses of stealing $500 from her some time ago, was brought into court and waived examination and was bound over in the sum of $500. In default he was committed to jail.

Wants Dog Killed

Mr. Elyron - I pay 50c on my dog, and I object to seeing every day hundreds of dogs on the street without tags. Today I saw a female dog, without a tag, on the street in heat. It is the duty of the city authorities to see that all dogs are tagged, and to kill those that are not. Why don't they do it? Why do they let some people pay tax, and yet not effect the same result? That is not fair. Not one dog in 10 wears a tag. Is that all that taxes are paid on?

A Dog Owner

Long Creek

S. C. Davis shipped three cars of stock to Chicago yesterday.

N. W. Rector of Bentonville, Ark., is visiting relatives here.

J. R. Replogle and family and Pete Grier and his wife, Miss Ida, went to Cerro Gordo and spent the Fourth.

DEATHS.

Charles T. Badenhausen.

After an illness of almost six months Charles T. Badenhausen, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Badenhausen, died yesterday a few minutes before 12. He fell off a barn and injured his spine. That resulted in paralysis about two months ago, and since then he has been slowly sinking. He passed away quietly, without any signs of suffering. He was 13 years old.

Ed East.

The friends of Ed East were surprised to learn yesterday of his death at Danville Monday evening. He left here Friday in perfect health to visit his grandmother. He was taken ill Saturday with a congestion that resisted all the efforts of physicians. He was 23 years old. The body was brought to Decatur yesterday and the funeral will be held at 10 o'clock this forenoon at 251 East Jefferson street.

Baile Martin.

Sadie, the two year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bradford Martin, died yesterday morning at 10 o'clock at the home of her parents in Mc. Zion, of whooping cough and lung fever. The little child had been sick for a period of six weeks.

Nellie Hershey.

The funeral of Miss Nellie Hershey, who died Tuesday night at St. Mary's hospital, will be held at 3:30 this afternoon from 120 West King street. She was sick about two weeks with brain fever.

Mr. Clymer

J. W. Clymer received a telegram yesterday conveying the intelligence that his mother died on Monday at her home at Kilmurry, Ill., of cancer. Mr. Clymer received the message too late to attend the funeral, which occurred yesterday.

DISMISSED FOR THE PRESENT.

Peter Mitchell will sue F. G. Bramble in the Circuit Court.

When the suit of Peter Mitchell against E. G. Bramble came up before Justice Stevens yesterday, it was dismissed on the ground that it had not been started properly.

It is the case where Mr. Bramble is charged with violating the civil rights bill. Peter says he is after Mr. Bramble's scalp, however, and will bring suit in the circuit court, which is the proper place.

There he will claim $500 damages at the next term of court. His attorney is C. G. Jorgeson. David Hutchinson represented Mr. Bramble yesterday.

The Moore Insanity Case

Judge Nelson held court all day yesterday in the circuit court room. That was to accommodate the large number of witnesses and spectators who were in attendance upon the Moore insanity case.

Mrs. Elias Moore brought suit for divorce against the present husband, C. A. Collins, and two or three days after that he made motion to have her declared an insane person. That motion is now being heard in the county court. I. A. Buckley represents Moore and A. H. Mills represents Mrs. Moore.

All through the day the court was com plained that the security they offered was not enough to hold the犯人.

When the court was com pleted, the court was com pleted.
